AROUND TOWN

Redfield Clinic News

Submitted by Ed Friedman

Avoiding skin cancer: As the sun gets higher in the sky with the approach of summer, it is important to remember that the most common cause of skin cancer is excessive exposure to the sun's ultraviolet radiation. Although sun light is the main source of ultraviolet radiation, the tanning beds are another important and avoidable source. Skin cancer is the most common cancer. One in five Americans will develop skin cancer in their lifetime.

Although anyone can develop skin cancer lighter skin toned people are at much greater risk than those with darker skin tones. In addition to UV exposure, other risk factors for developing skin cancer include family history, chronic inflammation, and a weakened immune system. Early detection is key to successful treatment of skin cancer. The three main types of skin cancer are basal cell carcinoma, squamous cell carcinoma and malignant melanoma.

Basal cell cancer: These account for 80% of all skin cancers. It usually presents as a skin colored, translucent and shiny skin bump. But it can also show as a pink patch that bleeds easily. It usually appears on the sun exposed areas of the arms, head and neck.

Squamous cell cancer: It is the second most common type of skin cancer. It usually shows up as a firm red bump with a crusty center and ragged edges.

Melanoma: These account for about 1% of all U.S. skin cancers. But it is the most likely to be deadly. Melanoma can look like a mole that keeps enlarging or, rarely, a black or brown streak in a finger or toenail. In addition there are rare forms of viral caused skin cancers, including Merkel cell carcinoma and Kaposi's sarcoma.

The American Association of Dermatologists recommends seeking care at the earliest signs of melanoma using the ABCDE rule:

A: Asymmetrical: One side of the skin growth looks different from the other

B: Border: The edges are irregular

C: Color: The color is various shades of black, brown, white, red or blue

D: Diameter: The size is greater than a pencil eraser (greater than 6 mm diameter). Seek professional evaluation if the size is less than the pencil eraser if other signs of melanoma are present.

E: Evolution: Rapid change in size, shape or color

The rare acral melanomas can occur on the palms and soles. And melanomas can rarely occur inside the mouth, in skin creases and other non-sun exposed areas of the body.

Prevention of skin cancer: Wear a mineral based, broad spectrum sunscreen with a sun protection factor (SPF) of at least 30, and protective clothing. Avoid prolonged exposure to the midday sun, between 10 AM and 4 PM central daylight time. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

President Barb Horn opened the meeting on April 15, 2025 with eight members present. Chaplain Linda Cope started the meeting with a prayer and then the normal operating procedures were followed.

Linda Cope took roll call and recorded 121 volunteer hours for the past month.

March minutes were read. Janell Ketlesen approved minutes as read. Teresa Nolin 2nd. All were in favor.

Treasurer Pat Griffith gave the treasures report. Stephanie Wine moved to accept report as given. Bonnie Rote 2nd. All were in favor.

Pat Griffith also stated she did the tax forms and submitted them.

Old Business:

There were nine letters sent by Christy Dwyer to Seniors from Redfield who go to WCV, regarding the scholarships we will be awarding at the Sr. Banquet this Spring. We only received one letter back. The candidate is very well qualified and will receive the scholarship at the awards banquet on May 13th. It was discussed on what to do in the future sense we are not getting much response. We will continue to discuss this.

The upcoming Dallas County Spring Meeting has been changed again. It will be held at our location on April 22nd, 2025. Our unit is responsible for the meal. Registration is at 5:30, dinner at 6:00 followed by the meeting at 6:30. We will have a guest speaker during dinner. The food was discussed again to make sure everyone was on board with what they are going to provide.

We then touched on Old Settlers. Linda Cope and Pat Griffith will do the kiddy parade on Friday night, June 27th. If Pat can't make it Teresa Nolan will step in. The meal will be discussed at a later meeting.

New Business:

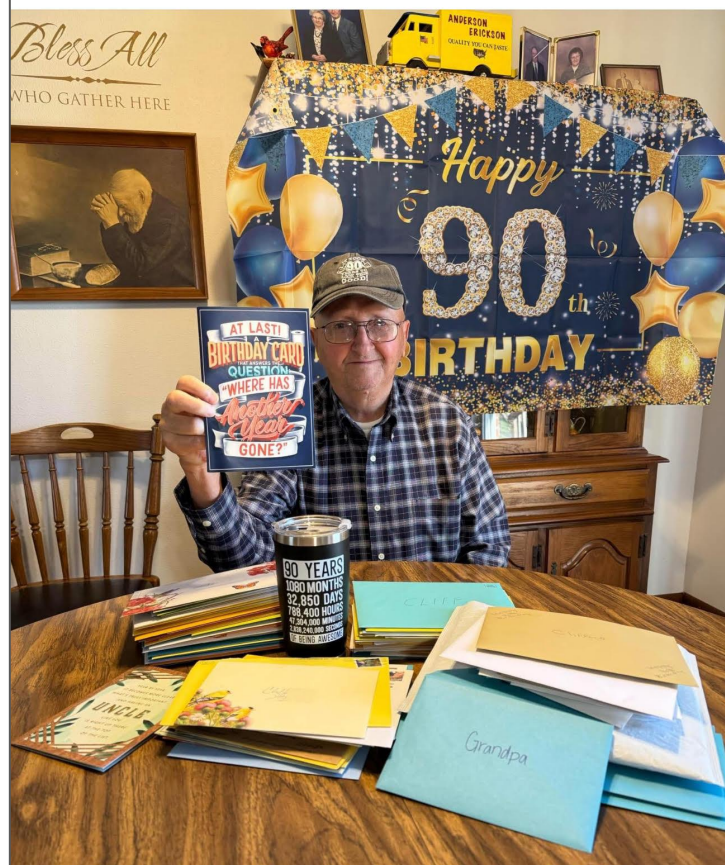

Poppy day is coming up. We will be distributing poppies on May 24, 2025, at the Legion breakfast. Janell Ketlesen and Linda Cope will be there at 6:00 AM to get their first customers. All other members were encouraged to stop that morning and help if they are available. Janell will set up our table the Friday before.

Pat Griffith then shared that she has been in contact with the WCV Art teacher regarding Poppy Posters. She will continue working with her and we should have posters by our next meeting.

Janell Ketlesen then asked if we could all get matching shirts or aprons to wear at special meetings and funerals. The Legion orders shirts and sells them to their members on a regular basis at a very reasonable price. Butch Horn is the one who does this so Barb Horn is checking into it.

The meeting was then closed with a prayer by Chaplain Linda Cope.

April 6th marked a milestone. Cliff Wadle, says "Thank You" for all the 90th Birthday cards, phone calls, and birthday wishes! He received and enjoyed reading over 100 Birthday cards. He sure felt the love of friends and family on this special occasion. 🥰🥰

Gardening Tips for May in Zone 5 (Redfield)

Submitted by Bill Hotchkiss & Janell Ketelsen, both Master Gardeners

This year the weather has been a little warmer than last year. Last year at this time, fruit trees budded out early in April, then a cold snap worried many of us that the trees were damaged. This year all of my fruit trees have blossomed and look great with no significant forecast of a cold snap in the near future to worry about. With the warm temperatures, our Asparagus and Rhubarb look great, and we have had several meals of asparagus already. I have also planted my Spinach, Onions, Peas, Pak Choi, and Zucchini. They are all up and doing fine. Using my rain tanks, I have collected about 500 gallons of rainwater to use when the weather turns hot and dry. Collecting rainwater has been one of the best things I have done for my garden (and pocketbook). I have also killed 12 tomato plants by overwatering them inside waiting to transplant outdoors – rats!! Why did I plant these tomatoes so early??

Gardening "To Do" Tips by Month for Redfield, IA

- Have a rain gage – measure rainfall so you know when to water your plants. If your garden has clay in the soil, water has difficulty moving out of the root zone. Too much water can cause root rots.
- Sow seeds outdoors: beets, carrots, chard, kohlrabi, cabbage, spinach, turnips, onion sets, and peas.
- Keep hilling potatoes. If you do not hill potatoes, the sun will turn the skin green.
- Plant new shrubs and trees.
- Begin hardening off the plants you started inside from seeds in April (set them outside during the day and bring them inside at night).
- Fertilize perennials at this time of the year (do not fertilize in season or fall)
- Protect transplants from insects (especially cutworms). Support tomato plants with a four inch stick directly next to the stem. When inserted into the ground the stick should be two inches below and two inches above the ground. If you see cutworms, do not be afraid to pick these insects off of the plants and squish them.
- In April it should be safe to plant most vegetables outside.... Cucumbers do not do well unless the soil is warm.
- Have your trellis in place for tomatoes, peas, pole beans, and gourds.
- If you have raspberries, cut down last year's fruiting canes to the ground to promote new growth.
- If you are interested in straw bale gardening, Joe Karsten has a website that you can visit to get more information on how to garden this way (potatoes can be grown this way).
- Know what plants grow best in your area.
- Use the map on the back of the seed packets to show you the zones, when to plant, height of the plant, how deep to plant the seeds, and the length of the growing time.
- Using plants specific to your zone will be more successful and you will spend less time, money, and irritation by growing accordingly with proper soil, temperature, and precipitation patterns.
- Take advantage of online research, talk to other gardeners, and learn from their mistakes – I know I continue to make mistakes over and over again.

We wanted to touch base on Invasive Plants

- Who determines this classification?
 - o International, Federal, and State officials regulate this classification.
 - o They set guidelines on how to eradicate these species.
- Examples of invasive species include:
 - o Chinese Wisteria
 - o Ornamental Bittersweet
 - o English Ivy
 - o Sweet Autumn Clematis
 - o Butterfly Bush
 - o Japanese Honeysuckle
- In my yard I would consider these plants to be invasive. They might not be classified as an invasive species, but they are weeds I do not want - they are:
 - o Dandelions
 - o Poison Ivy
 - o Creeping Charlie
 - o Crab Grass
- The farm community has other species they are required to eradicate in pastures and row crop situations.
- Check out the USDA National Website for more information on invasive species

The Dallas County Plant Sale is on Saturday, May 3rd at the Dallas County Fairgrounds in Adel Iowa. The doors open at 9:00 a.m. and most likely be sold out by midafternoon. There are Master Gardeners on hand to answer questions you might have on plant placement and what would work good for your garden, See you at the plant sale!

The Raccoon River Valley Trail at the Redfield Depot

Submitted by Louise Kipping

With signs of Spring all around us it is time for another annual spring opening - the opening of the welcome center hosted by Redfield volunteers at the Depot on the RRVT. This arrangement was initiated when the trail was first opened thirty-five years ago by the Dallas County Conservation Board, headquartered in Perry. So - supplies of bottled drinks, salty and sweet snacks are being purchased. Local people are signing up to make homemade cookies and/or to staff the depot - where they will offer a friendly local touch to riders and the chance to purchase snacks and cold drinks.

We have local people who for years now have been signing up to fill either a morning or an afternoon four hour shift at the depot on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from May through October. We are in need of more volunteers - if you are interested contact one of the names below to find out more, and sign-up to give it a try. It is a fun volunteer job - just four hours once a month (or every other month) with the chance to greet, meet and help trail users out. (Redfield's homemade cookies are known far and wide for their nourishing and energy-producing qualities! They are also known for their price - $.25 per cookie.)

There is no construction that will affect trail travel between Redfield and Linden this year. The same is true between Redfield and Adel. The following update explains some near-by construction (which may have some effect on us) which will be going on this summer.

TRAIL UPDATES (From the Raccoon River Valley Trail Monthly Newsletter):

"Phase IV of the South Loop Rehabilitation is underway, involving the widening of bridges and resurfacing the trail with concrete. The three mile section impacted by this closure is from Adel to Ortonville (at the Dallas Center exit off Highway 6). This construction is expected to continue through the summer, and the trail is closed at each end of the affected sections. There is not an official detour for the closure."

REDFIELD DEVELOPMENT

Last month Redfield Development asked for input from the community. On April 24th, 30 people gathered at the Legion Hall, listened to a short presentation about Redfield Development and then a good conversation was had about how Redfield Development can serve the community!

If you were not able to attend but would still like to be involved everyone was given a checklist at the end of the night.

- Subscribe to organizations such as Rural Ideas Network or Greater Dallas County Development Alliance that may have grant opportunities or conferences that would benefit our community and share them with Redfield Development.
- Invite someone to participate in Development, especially someone new to town.
- Come to the next meeting on May 19th at 7pm at the Legion Hall.
- SHARE YOUR IDEAS!

The volunteer opportunities were:

- Legion Breakfast
- Event Planning
- Event Participation
- Community Projects
- Marketing
- Depot Concessions
- Museum
- Other

If you would like to help with any of these or have ideas for others, email your information and what you be willing to help with to Lantz_dustin@yahoo.com. Let me know if you have any questions.

2024 WATER QUALITY REPORT

FOR

REDFIELD WATER WORKS

This report contains important information regarding the water quality in our water system. The source of our water is groundwater. Our water quality testing shows the following results:

CONTAMINANT	MCL - (MCLG)	Compliance		Date	Violation	Source
		Type	Value & (Range)
Total Trihalomethanes (ppb) [TTHM]	80 (N/A)	LRAA	14.00 (14 - 14)	09/30/2024	No	By-products of drinking water chlorination
Copper (ppm)	AL=1.3 (1.3)	90th	0.24 (0.02 - 0.32)	2024	No	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; Erosion of natural deposits; Leaching from wood preservatives
Lead (ppb)	AL=15 (0)	90th	0.00 (ND - 1)	2024	No	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; erosion of natural deposits
950 - DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM
Chlorine (ppm)	MRDL=4.0 (MRDLG=4.0)	RAA	1.6 (0.96 - 2.3)	12/31/2024	No	Water additive used to control microbes
01 - WELLS 1 & 3 AFTER TREATMENT
Barium (ppm)	2 (2)	SGL	0.07	04/18/2022	No	Discharge of drilling wastes; Discharge from metal refineries; Erosion of natural deposits
Fluoride (ppm)	4 (4)	SGL	0.23	04/18/2022	No	Water additive which promotes strong teeth; Erosion of natural deposits; Discharge from fertilizer and aluminum factories
Sodium (ppm)	N/A (N/A)	SGL	149	05/28/2024	No	Erosion of natural deposits; Added to water during treatment process

Note: Contaminants with dates indicate results from the most recent testing done in accordance with regulations.

DEFINITIONS

- Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) – The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
- Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG) -- The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
- ppb -- parts per billion.
- ppm -- parts per million.
- pCi/L – picocuries per liter
- N/A -- Not applicable
- ND -- Not detected
- RAA – Running Annual Average
- Treatment Technique (TT) – A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.
- Action Level (AL) – The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
- Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level Goal (MRDLG) - The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.
- Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level (MRDL) - The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.
- SGL – Single Sample Result

- RTCR – Revised Total Coliform Rule
- NTU – Nephelometric Turbidity Units

GENERAL INFORMATION

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water posed a health risk. More information about contaminants or potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. REDFIELD WATER WORKS is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead>.

Our water supply has completed a service line inventory. Please contact us for information regarding the inventory and how you can access the results.

SOURCE WATER ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

This water supply obtains its water from the sand and gravel of the Alluvial aquifer. The Alluvial aquifer was determined to be highly susceptible to contamination because the characteristics of the aquifer and overlying materials provide little protection from contamination at the land surface. The Alluvial wells will be highly susceptible to surface contaminants such as leaking underground storage tanks, contaminant spills, and excess fertilizer application. A detailed evaluation of your source water was completed by the Iowa Department of Natural Resources, and is available from the Water Operator at 515-371-1364.

CONTACT INFORMATION

For questions regarding this information or how you can get involved in decisions regarding the water system, please contact REDFIELD WATER WORKS at 515-371-1364.

REQUEST TO RECEIVE REDFIELD UTILITY BILL BY EMAIL ONLY

The default method of bill delivery is mailing paper postcard bills to our customers, but the City of Redfield has the ability to automatically email utility bills each month instead of mailing out paper postcard bills. E-Bills (receiving your bill by email) offers the following advantages:

The opportunity to go paperless (Go Green and save more trees)!*

A convenient way to receive and save your bills*

Eliminates bills getting lost or damaged in the mail*

Receive your bills sooner*

Saves the City money by reducing postage, material and equipment costs*

The E-bill only delivery method is optional. To sign up for E-bills, complete the form below and return it to city hall. The form is also available on the city's website www.redfieldia.com Customers with multiple utility accounts should complete a City of Redfield E-Bill Sign-Up Form for each utility account.

City of Redfield E-Bill Sign-Up Form

Utility Account _____ Name _____

Property Address _____

Email _____ Phone _____

I understand that I am signing up to receive my monthly City of Redfield utility bill by email only. I also understand that paper postcard bills will no longer be sent to me by postal mail. I understand that it is my responsibility to pay my bill on time, even if I do not receive an emailed bill.

I am responsible to notify the city if an emailed bill is not received. If my email address changes, I will contact the City of Redfield as soon as possible to update my email.

Rex J. Harvey Foundation

A fund has been set up to raise money for a statue of Rex J. Harvey of Redfield.

Rex attended Dexfield High School, where he helped his track and field team win two state championships under the legendary coach Dean Roe. He then earned a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering at Iowa State University, where he attended on an athletic track and field scholarship. During which he participated in four U.S. NCAA Division I Championships.

Rex was a Vietnam War Veteran, who served as a Captain in the United States Airforce. As a member of the US Military track and field team he represented the United States at many international competitions, as well as the 1972 and 1976, US Olympic Trials in the Decathlon.

Rex went on to earn a Master of Science Degree in Systems Management at the University of Southern California. During his many years as an engineer, he designed and holds several patents for nozzles. He ended his career as a Research Development Engineer at Parker Corporation in Cleveland, Ohio.

Rex continued his track career as a master's competitor, during which he won 13 straight national decathlon championships, as well as several world championships in the decathlon, pole vault, and as a member of several relay teams.

Rex was inducted into the USATF Masters Hall of Fame in 2000. He was an integral part of developing age-graded tables for scoring masters track and field athletic performances. He was elected to two terms as Vice President Stadia of World Masters Athletics (WMA). At the time of his death, he was serving as the President of USATF Masters Track & Field. Rex had accumulated one million total decathlon points, making him a World Record holder.

Donations to honor Rex can be sent to:

Who are the people in your neighborhood?

Anyone else remember that segment on Sesame Street where you find out about the different business owners, service people, and neighbors in the community? If you live, work, volunteer, or otherwise help Redfield be awesome, I want to hear from you! Please answer the following questions for articles to be included in upcoming issues of the Redfield Review. If you have an idea of someone who should be included, please email your suggestion to caradredge@gmail.com

Your name: _____

What would you like people to know about you and your family? _____

The name of your business or organization is: _____

How long have you been affiliated with this business or organization? _____

What is the primary goal or service offered by your business or organization? _____

What special events [or specials] does your business or organization have coming up? _____

What is something people might not know about you, your business or organization? _____

Just for fun, please answer one of the following questions:

1. If you could completely get rid of one month out of the year, what month would it be and why?
2. If your hometown was a food, what food would it be and why?
3. What would the silliest or most outrageous feature of your dream house be?
